

Notice of Your Information Privacy & RESS

RESS recognizes the importance of privacy issues regarding information supplied by you, our valued members and subscribers. This is our privacy notice for RESS members and Boat newsletter subscribers.

We first define some terms.

We, our, and us means the Realistic Equine Sculpture Society, or "RESS".

Personal information means information about you that we collect in connection with providing RESS services, programs or events to you. This includes your name, address, what RESS services, direct or sponsored programs or events you have participated in, what RESS products you may have purchased, any contests or other RESS activities you may have applied for and participated in.

The Information That We Collect

We collect personal information about you from the following sources:

- Information we receive from you on applications or other forms, (for shows, grants, programs, events, etc.)
- Information about your transactions with us
- Information that you provide as a RESS member and/or subscribe to the Boat newsletter

The Confidentiality, Security and Integrity of Your Personal Information

We restrict access to personal information about you to those RESS officers who need to know that information to provide RESS products, programs or services to you. Those officers do not share that information with outside parties except as described below. These same guidelines apply to former members or subscribers.

Authorized Sharing

We may disclose the following information to other equine art, or equine oriented organizations or publications if we think there will be some potential benefit to you, with the further stipulation that this information may not be further sold or shared with any other parties.

- Name
- Address

If you have any questions, please contact us. You can do so at:
RESS Executive Director, P.O. Box 103, Campbell, TX 75422;
(903) 862-4063 or e-mail to treasurer@ress.org